

UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

FACULTY OF
VETERINARY MEDICINE

IN LOVING Memory
Georgia

Georgia came home to us as a one-year-old shy cat who had spent time as a stray. Over the years, she became the most loyal and affectionate friend, who loved a warm lap, or nestling into the crook of an arm. In addition to her two humans and her son Clarence, she adored sunbeams, pets at the food dish, and chattering at birds. Georgia was loved greatly and will be forever missed.

