Ferguson

Ferguson was a most wonderful dog for our family. He was a St. Bernard and standard poodle mix that arrived to our family in 2017. We called him Ferguson but he had a variety of other names based on his unique character and sophisticated looks. Mr. Slippers (as he dragged his hind legs on the hardwood and sounded like an old man trudging down the hall in his slippers), The Butler (he would lie with his front legs crossed on the front mat waiting for his next guest), and Fergusmerguson (when he would launch himself head-long into any neighbourhood sprinkler like Snuffalufgus on Sesame Street. He will be remembered and cherished forever.
