UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY | FACULTY OF VETERINARY MEDICINE

IN LOVING Memory

Maskomin

Maskomin was saved from an abandonment situation along with 2 other stallions. He is an extremely rare Ojibwe Horse and it was imperative that the bloodlines be preserved for the health of the breed. Unfortunately he had some health issues and had to be humanely euthanized. He was an incredibly smart, sweet, lovable little horse and we miss him still.